

2012 Independent Rental Owners Council (IROC) Membership

Designed specifically for owners of fewer than 100 rental units, this IROC membership entitles you to participate in seminars and networking events, and provides members with hints and tips regarding onsite management, maintenance and more.

Why Join IROC?

Independent rental owners become involved in IROC for several reasons:

- Use of professionally-developed lease forms, AANC or NAA
- Updates on local, state and national legislative issues
- Sharing ideas with fellow IROC members
- Update on legal issues such as Fair Housing
- General educational activities, such as leasing, marketing, lease enforcement, credit and criminal background checks
- Exposure to local and national suppliers
- NAA's units Magazine, and PTAA's bimonthly magazine, the Triadvocate
- Social and networking activities

3-in-1 Membership

Your membership in PTAA automatically gives you representation in the National Apartment Association and the Apartment Association of North Carolina. NAA represents your interest politically on the national level, while providing a multitude of educational and support services. AANC is the state representative for the multifamily interests in the legislative arena. Our lobbyist monitors, supports, and initiates legislation on behalf of your interests.
